

THOUGHTFUL THURSDAYS

A PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES FOR EDUCATORS

Presented by the Virginia Tech School of Education

NEW DATE!

November 29, 2018

Preparing to be an Effective Leader

A review of three significant studies of adult development to determine what makes a good life reveals six major insights that can put you on the path to being the leader you want to be.

Presented by Ted Price.

September 20, 2018

Tools & Strategies for Technology Integration in the Classroom

Presented by Amy Bond.

September 27, 2018

Understanding & Educating Immigrants/Refugees

Schools play a critical role in responding to immigrants and refugees as they enter schools ready to learn strategies to successfully engage these students. Our presenter, Dr. Maria & Kathleen

October 4, 2018

School Law for Teachers

Learn about school law that applies to teachers. This session will cover issues such as, but not limited to, search, seizure as well as negligence and liability. Presented by Dr. Bill Glenn.

October 11, 2018

How to Be a Coach for Your Faculty & Staff

Would you like to lead your instructional coaching techniques that will increase your staff's engagement? This workshop will show you how to coach your staff to work in your school. Presented by Michelle Hairston.

October 18, 2018

Special Education Collaboration

Conduct activities with High Level Practitioners (HLPs) with a focus on collaborating with colleagues to develop a plan for student success, lead effective meetings with professional staff, and collaborate with families to support student success & secure needed services. Presented by Zenia Burnett & Glenda Walter.

October 25, 2018

STEM Leadership in Schools in 2020: Why, What & How

Learn the rationale for integrative teaching & learning, student-driven, project-based, problem-based inquiry, and integrating STEM concepts by subject, grade & classroom. Experience examples of adapted hands-on activities. Presented by Jim Egenrieder.

November 1, 2018

Capitalizing on the Context of Where You Work & Live

Knowing how to capitalize on the uniqueness of your environment can empower your future will be impacted. Your navigational abilities for a day to discuss your journey. Presented by Stewart Peterson

November 8, 2018

The Skills that Matter; Teaching Self Regulation in any High School Classroom

In this session, you learn how to impact students' success by teaching self-regulation within science, math, language arts, and social studies course content. The presenter will provide an overview of the College & Career Competency Framework, share free resources, discuss implementation challenges, & provide instructional ideas specific to self-regulation. Participants will leave with a personalized plan to teach students how to self-regulate & guide them to practice the competency. Presented by Amy Gaumer Erickson, PhD.

Cost:

There is no charge for any of the workshops. Lunch & snacks are provided for each session. Parking is free.

November 15, 2018

Educating for a Global Community

Global education begins by raising awareness of global challenges, creating deeper understanding of the complexity of underlying causes. It aims to change attitudes by reflecting on your role in the world. Presented by Ted Price.

Registration:

Email Lisa Roland at lroland@vt.edu to receive the registration link for the session(s) you wish to attend. There is no cost but seating is limited. Register today!

Virginia Tech Richmond Center
2810 N Parham Rd, Suite 300
Henrico, VA 23294

Location:

Time:

Each session: 8 am - 4 pm
8 contact hours (0.8 CEUs)

VIRGINIA
TECH